Bollards

Heritage supply bollards to a range of traditional designs or can manufacture bollards to match particular requirements for style, design and material. Heritage chosen material for manufacture and that used for all stock bollards is impact resistant ductile iron which is stronger than the more commonly used cast iron.

The displayed range of our four most popular bollards are offered direct from stock at competitive prices. All bollards supplied from stock are painted with corrosion resistant red oxide primer paint, or can be finish painted to any colour and with highlighted features.

In addition to manufacturing bollards to bespoke designs and from alternative materials such as cast iron and aluminium, Heritage in house design team and workshop is able to incorporate design features into standard bollards thereby reducing costs. Some of these features include:

- Removable bollards fitted into lockable flush mounted floor sockets.
- Tubular rails fitted at various heights to act as handrails or cycle stands.
- Eyelets and chains fitted between bollards to restrict access.
