Posts & Rails

Heritage rail posts are made to a range of traditional designs with root or flange bases to accept either one or two rails. Posts can also be supplied with handrail locking screws, stop end caps, as corner units or with sloping rail holes to suit most gradients. Specific designs and rail heights can also be produced to suit your requirements. Posts can be supplied primer or finish painted to any colour.

Heritage galvanised steel handrail is recommended for use with our rail posts and can be supplied cut to size or from stock (6.5m lengths) for cutting on site.

Posts can also be supplied with eyelets to accept chains or floor sockets where easy removal is a requirement.
